Fund-raising events slated to ease Valdez family burdens

Valdez Fund Charts were placed at both city banks this week by Carmen Hernandez, left, of the Canyon Community Family Services

Association and Evelyn Trice of West Texas State Bank is shown marking the first entry on the current fund total.

A community wide "Flea Market" is being planned for September 27-28 at the Randall County Junior Livestock Building with proceeds to go to the Ricardo Valdez fund.

Valdez, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brito Valdez of Canyon, is presently being treated for leukemia and goes weekly to an Amarillo hospital for treatments. Ricardo, 11 years old, receives blood transfusions from the Amarillo chapter of the National Leukemia Association.

Besides facing the possible loss of a son, the Valdez family faces an already mountainous load of medical expenses. The Valdez family migrated here from Old Mexico and have for several years been employed in the farming operations of Bruce Wynn, north of the city.

Ricardo's classmates at Rex Reeves Elementary School have collection containers located throughout the city in an effort to collect part of the fund. Trust accounts have been established at the First National and West Texas State Banks in Canyon for the youth with a current combined total of about $250.00 on deposit for the youth's present and future needs.

Since early July Ricardo has spent over 30 days in hospitals and the bills for these services keep rising with a current need in excess of $4,000, according to Carmen Hernandez of the Canyon Community Family Services Association.

Mrs. Hernandez was present this week as fund count posters were placed at both city banks by the Buffalo Breakers CB Club to keep the fund monies tabulated.

At noon on Friday fraternity members of Lambda Chi Alpha will begin a "rock-a-thon" in an effort to raise part of the funds needed by the Valdez family to meet current needs. The "rock-a-thon" will be a 27 hour activity featuring four rocking chairs kept in constant motion by the fraternity members to earn pledge money they have been soliciting from local businesses and individuals this week. Other businesses and individuals may add their pledge money to the effort by contacting a fraternity member at the "rock-a-thon" site between 12 noon Friday and 3 p.m. Saturday afternoon when the rockers will halt. The activity will be staged in front of McDonald's Restaurant.

Fifty percent of profits from a Mexican Dinner Monday evening will be going to the Valdez fund. The dinner will be held at the Episcopal Center, 2516 4th Avenue, Sept. 15, with supper served from 5:30 until 7:30 p.m. at $2.50 per plate. The dinner is sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega national service fraternity at West Texas State University.

Coming up next week for the Valdez Fund effort will be a car wash to be manned by members of Buffalo Breakers CB Club with all proceeds going into the fund. The car wash will be held here next Saturday, Sept. 20, and automobiles will be picked up and delivered by the sponsoring group. Further details on the car wash will be available soon.

A number of other fundraising efforts are expected in the city for the Valdez Fund including an October dance to be sponsored by Lucius Penick Post #5681 and the Auxiliary of the local Veteran's (See VALDEZ, Page 5)

Two area men named to honor

A Happy man and a Canyon man have been named to the 1975 edition of Outstanding Young Men of America, according to an announcement this week.

They are James Neil McCauley of Happy, and Dr. Norman Joseph Nelson of 1502 Creekmore.

The Outstanding Young Men of America program is sponsored annually by leading men's civic and service organizations throughout the nation.

The criteria for selection include a man's voluntary service to community, professional leadership, academic achievement, business advancement, cultural accomplishments and civic and political participation.

About 9000 men in the country have been named for the honor and will be featured in the annual awards publication.

McCauley, a 1969 Happy High School graduate, is an insurance managing district agent in Happy and Amarillo. He attended Abilene Christian College before going into the insurance business about 2½ years ago.

McCauley is a member of the Happy Jaycees, for which he is speak-up representative. He is a member of the Million Dollar Round-Table, and a life-time member of the Republic National President's Club.

He is also a member of the Happy Church of Christ.

Developers to propose annex plan

Amarillo land developers, who only recently have taken an overt role in a controversy involving the Canyon and Amarillo school districts, are expected this afternoon to propose a monetary formula which would compensate the local district for school lands detached and annexed by Amarillo.

Emmett Fuqua, of Quien Sabe Investment Co., said Tuesday he will ask the Canyon School Board Annexation Committee to release school lands now in the local district for annexation by Amarillo and will offer to pay for the land so swapped.

Fuqua confirmed that in the past he has offered as much as $50,000 to the Canyon school district if board members would agree to the detachment of property adjacent Puckett Place in Amarillo.

But, he said this afternoon's offer will be for more than $50,000.

Fuqua said he will also call on the annexation committee to agree to establishment of a formula to be used in figuring compensation in future land exchanges.

He is expected to suggest the district allow the property in which he is interested—that property west of Coulter Road south of Amarillo—to be annexed by Amarillo school district, and then in the future allow other lands to be annexed by Amarillo only as the need for new development areas arises.

The formula Fuqua will propose would set out a per acre compensation rate to go to the Canyon district for land annexed by Amarillo, but the developer said he is willing to pay more than the formula for his project.

Fuqua said his efforts will be to get the two school boards to agree to future annexations to the south and southwest of Amarillo and to appoint a joint annexation committee to monitor the situation and keep abreast of the facts.

Other South Amarillo developers, including representatives of the Texas Panhandle Home Builders Association, are expected to make presentations to the local board committee this afternoon, too.

Local Supt. Jerry Jacobs said Robert Ashworth, superintendent of schools in Amarillo, and two Amarillo school board members have also indicated they will make presentations to the committee.

The committee will meet at 3 p.m. at the school board chambers in the new school administration building (old Neblett Hospital).

Jacobs said he does not anticipate the committee itself will make a formal presentation. And, he said the ground rules for the meeting call for no argument from the floor.

The meeting today is the first in open session for the board committee, which was formed about two years ago when Amarillo school board members initially began trying to obtain more lands to the south of Amarillo.

Committee members include Jacobs, Board President Tom Keeling, Richard Pruett and Ed Wieck.

Wieck suggested the committee meeting about a month ago during a regular school board session.

For the past several months the annexation of school lands has again become a hot topic at school board meetings. Developers have made formal presentations at board meetings and at meetings of a committee recently established by the school board to study ways to provide more classroom space for Canyon school children.

Chamber tables annex vote

Canyon Chamber of Commerce directors appeared split on the issue Monday night as they voted to table action on a controversy involving Canyon and Amarillo school district lands.

At least one chamber director said the board should take no stand on the issue. Yet another said the board should not issue a statement until fully apprised of the facts of the controversy.

Cordell Huddleston of West Texas State Bank moved that discussion of the issue be tabled.

But, Reggie Reeves, local attorney, offered an amendment to Huddleston's motion which stipulated the discussion would be tabled until adequate information on the controversy could be disseminated to directors.

The amended motion passed unanimously.

Chamber President Weldon Trice tossed the hot issue on the board table Monday night by asking directors what they wanted to say or do, if anything, about the issue.

Trice noted that the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce board two weeks ago passed a resolution calling on the Canyon school district to cede to the Amarillo school district about 11 sections of land south and southwest of Amarillo to ensure future growth in the area.

The Canyon school board has for two years declined to allow Amarillo to annex local school lands and has appealed action taken by Randall County school trustees last October to allow 160 acres of the Glendale subdivision in the north part of the county to be annexed by Amarillo.

Huddleston charged that news media distorted or took out of context action revealed last Thursday night during a Canyon school Committee for Sound Finance meeting. A subcommittee had recommended the Canyon board allow Amarillo to annex lands south and southwest of Amarillo.

He suggested each board member obtain a copy of the findings given the committee, which is studying a bond issue and election for the school board.

"You should read every document and make up your own mind," he urged. "I think the entire board of the chamber ought to have the information before they make a statement."

Board Member Phil Langen

disagreed.

"I don't think the Canyon chamber is in any position to take a stand concerning this matter," he said. "I'm not sure even the people on that subcommittee have all the information they need. I'd be in favor of not making any vote on the thing."

Canyon Schools Supt. Jerry Jacobs, a visitor at the board meeting, asked whether a formal statement from the board would be appropriate under the chamber's by-laws.

"Would such a thing be within (See ANNEX, Page 5)

Per capita tax bite lower here

County budget far lower than Potter's

Randall County commissioners may have hiked their spending level for next year by $300,000 when approval was given Monday to a 1976 budget, but they've got a long way to go to keep pace with the spending level in Potter County to the north.

Figures compiled from budgets for this fiscal year from Potter and Randall counties and Lubbock County indicate county government in Randall County costs far less per capita than it does taxpayers in Potter County.

While providing essentially the same state-mandated functions, the county budgets show a great disparity when viewed in relationship to the number of persons served by county government in each entity.

For residents of Randall County, government will cost $1,363,387 during 1975 if commissioners' estimates hold true. Potter County residents will find their taxes a good bit higher with a budget of about $4,616,683 for the year.

Even though Potter County with about 96,000 residents has a third more people than does Randall County with a population estimated at 65,000, governmental services in Potter County cost about three times more this year than do governmental services in Randall County.

Government will cost every man, woman and child in Potter County $48 this year while government in Randall County will cost every man, woman and child only $20 in 1975.

To relate only to property owners rather than all residents, individual taxpayers in Potter County will pay more county taxes in 1975 than will individual taxpayers in Randall County. With a tax rate this year of 80 cents per $100 valuation, Potter County could be expected to charge taxes of $57.60 this year for a $20,000 house, if the house is on the tax rolls at 100 per cent value. A Randall County homeowner could expect to pay only $35.70 for his $20,000 house providing the house is on the rolls at 100 per cent value, based on a tax schedule of $1.05 per $100 valuation on 17 per cent of 100 per cent valuation.

On a per capita, or even a per taxpayer, basis, then, Randall County residents are paying far less for county services than are those urbanites or suburbanites who live north of the invisible county demarcation line.

While Potter County residents will pay out more this year for the total county government expenditures than will their counterparts in (See BUDGET, Page 5)

Group cites inadequacies

Current school needs said to be many

Present Canyon school facilities are not only overcrowded but are inadequate for their designed purposes, members of the school district Quality Education Committee were told Tuesday night.

Subcommittee chairmen reported studies initiated in recent meetings indicate existing facilities are woefully short of not only classroom space but of other typical extras.

Everything from school cafeterias to football fields was examined by the subcommittees who reported to the committee as a whole Tuesday night.

A building needs subcommittee, chaired by Charles Purcell of Amarillo, reported passage of a resolution recommending that the Canyon School board investigate the possibility of constructing additions to current buildings as opposed to constructing new facilities.

Purcell told the committee his subcommittee had decided that the Canyon district needs new schools.

But, Purcell was challenged on the point by subcommittee member Carroll Wilson, who noted the subcommittee had not voted on whether to recommend that new schools be built and that no such statement could be positively made until the school board had studied the possibilities of adding on to present structures.

Committee Chairman Bill Davis, who told committee members he feels the classroom space problem could be solved at Canyon High School with an addition rather than new construction, although he believes a new elementary school is needed, appointed a committee headed by Benny Cooper to study the best and most useable size for a high school, junior high and elementary school.

During the session, Supt. Jerry Jacobs, called on for comment by committee members, told the group it is the school board's opinion after study with the school administrative staff that a new senior high and elementary school are definitely needed in the north part of the district.

He said, however, he had been reluctant to tell the committees the feelings of the board because the knowledge might color the investigations of the various citizens groups.

Other subcommittee reports addressed the current space situation in Canyon's schools.

A subcommittee headed by David Kent, tennis coach at West Texas State University, recommended that current athletic and extra-curricular facilities at the high school now be upgraded immediately.

"The committee feels that the school administration and teachers have done an excellent job working out of the inferior facilities, but the time for action to upgrade them is fast upon us," Kent's report says. "The young people of this community cannot reach their full potential with the crowded conditions that presently exist in Canyon High School."

by Troy Martin FROM THE CANYON RIM

I have been chided for not writing a column the past few weeks. I have been reluctant because other things have been occupying my mind and I have not been able to give the depth research to column material necessary to good writing.

I do agree that a column from the publisher of a newspaper is desirable. I know that two of America's greatest seldom missed an issue and they published dailies.

I'm speaking of E. W. Howe of The Atchinson Globe and Gene Howe of the Amarillo Globe-News — both now deceased. It must have been a chore to produce the readable columns they produced every day.

As well as newspapering I am presently engaged in book publishing and will be traveling the state quite a bit in the future. I hope to bring the readers of this space a little enlightenment about what is going on elsewhere as I see it.

Also anyone who can steer me to a good column item will be greatly appreciated and will have the satisfaction of having lightened the burden of a weary columnist.

Speaking of Columnists, I'm so proud of Susan Wilson. I discovered her, you know. Presently I'm trying to get Susan to compile a book which I will of course put into print and onto the book shelves in the Canyon area.

I think Susan is a great columnist, a quality I didn't know she had until recently. Writing about her trials as a housewife and mother of three little girls she projects her love not only for family but for her fellowman, qualities I have known she has had since I first met her.

I went down to Lubbock Monday night for an informal talk with a group of writers.

These people are among the world's greatest optimists.

It was delightful to spend some time with them.

The trip stirred memories of my days on the Tech campus. I remember Dean Allen is reported to have gone to a woman running a boarding house for students just off the loop near Tech.

"When are you going to quit letting your boys come home drunk at 2 a.m.?" the dean is quoted as having asked her.

"When you quit letting your boys from that West Hall dormitory sell whiskey to them," the landlady is said to have retorted.

I lived in West Hall and indeed alas what the lady said was true.

Many a lad, devoid of opportunity plan and government subsidy, worked his way through school with two suitcases taken empty by thumb to wet Amarillo and returned laden with gurgling bottles to Lubbock where each flask fetched a nifty price on the red Raider campus.

In association with Etta Lynch, a well known Lubbock writer, I am involved presently in producing a book on the life of the late Pete Cawthon, Red Raider football coach in the youthful teenage of the double T.

Cawthon was picturesque to say the least. One of his best known quotations here in Canyon is one credited to him after a particularly stinging defeat was handed to the Raiders by an especially inferior team.

Chamber Plans Basketball

A benefit basketball game between former rivals West Texas State and Texas Tech tops the list of activities unveiled Monday night which the Canyon Chamber of Commerce board of directors hopes to accomplish in the remainder of the year.

Director Phil Langen said his committee is working on scheduling a possible game between the Buffaloes and Red Raiders with proceeds to go to the chamber for other activities. He said he hopes the game can be played in the WTSU fieldhouse.

Dr. Steve Remlinger was appointed to head a group to work on a city-wide beautification project to be held possibly later this fall and just before the WTSU homecoming football game.

Remlinger suggested to board members that local residents be urged to clean up their yards and alleys and take their tree limbs and grass and other items to the site of the homecoming bonfire which will be held Oct. 16.

Director Don Johnston said his committee has been working on the possibility of sponsoring two or three special merchant promotion sales to promote business in the community. He said no plans have yet been finalized.

Director Cordell Huddleston announced his membership committee will begin soon to contact current members to increase their dues.

In other business Monday night, directors voted to continue through next year their annual biennial coin series issue.

Bronze, silver and gold-plated coins have been issued for sales locally during the past two summers by the chamber as a money-raising project.

Chamber Manager Roland Black noted the chamber has made about $500 profit on the coin sales during the past two years.

Board President Weldon Trice outlined the schedule of events for the upcoming homecoming activities for WTSU. He urged local businessmen and merchants to help students in the activities.

Homecoming will kick-off with a bonfire Oct. 16. A parade through downtown Canyon is scheduled for 10 a.m. Oct. 18, followed by a free barbecue (free only to football game ticket-holders), and a home football game.

Board members also passed a resolution supporting the efforts of Rep. Phil Cates, chamber of commerce manager in Shamrock, to locate a tourist information center at Shamrock for tourists travelling Interstate 40.

Eagles To Battle Borger Bulldogs

The Canyon High School Eagle football squad will be trying to even the season standings Friday when they take on the Borger Bulldogs at Borger.

Both teams lost their season opener. The Eagles fell to 4A powerhouse Lubbock Monterey and Borger was stopped by Perryton.

According to Eagle mentor Deane Wright, his team has shown considerable progress during workouts this week. "We'll definitely play better this week," Wright said. Wright added that the offense is improved.

At the scales, Borger and Canyon are about equal all around, but the Bulldogs are hefty in spots. Wright said that four Bulldogs tipped the scales at 230 or more.

"Their main strength is their defensive line," the coach said.

The tentative starting lineup for the Eagles is as follows:

OFFENSE

DEFENSE

Jonathan Hull and Kenny Basinger, defensive ends; Brad Bowers and Ronnie Howell, backers; Bob Lee and Drew Hetzler, defensive linemen; Elliot Berry and Wayne Robinson, linebackers; Allen Shankles, safety; and Joe Luquette and Ricky Cooper, defensive halfbacks.

Gametime is 7:30 p.m. at the Borger High School Stadium.

Committee To Meet

Members of the Committee for Sound Finance of the Canyon School District are expected to make formal recommendations tonight concerning financing future school construction.

One recommendation anticipated would suggest the Canyon school board proceed with a reappraisal of property within the district, or at least upgrade their tax-figuring formulas to produce accurate fair market value figures for real and personal property.

That recommendation was generally agreed upon but unpassed last Thursday night when the committee met.

Another recommendation which will be hammered out during tonight's session will concern whether the school board should raise the percentage of taxable value upon which tax rate formulas are applied.

One committee subgroup has suggested the valuation ratio be hiked to 100 per cent. Another has suggested it be hiked to 60 per cent.

Currently, taxpayers here pay taxes on $192 per $100 of valuation on 40 per cent of market value.

The entire committee will also consider passage of a subcommittee recommendation calling for the Canyon School Board to give up to Amarillo lands to the south and southwest of Amarillo for school purposes. Subcommittee members explained last week the recommendation would not affect those areas where residents desire to live in the Canyon School District.

The committee, which consists of about 30 persons appointed by the school board, has been meeting since mid-August.

Tonight's meeting will be at 7:30 at the junior high school.

Flag Football Sign-Ups Set

Sign-ups for elementary school boys interested in playing flag football with Kids, Inc., this year will be from 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday at the city swimming pool.

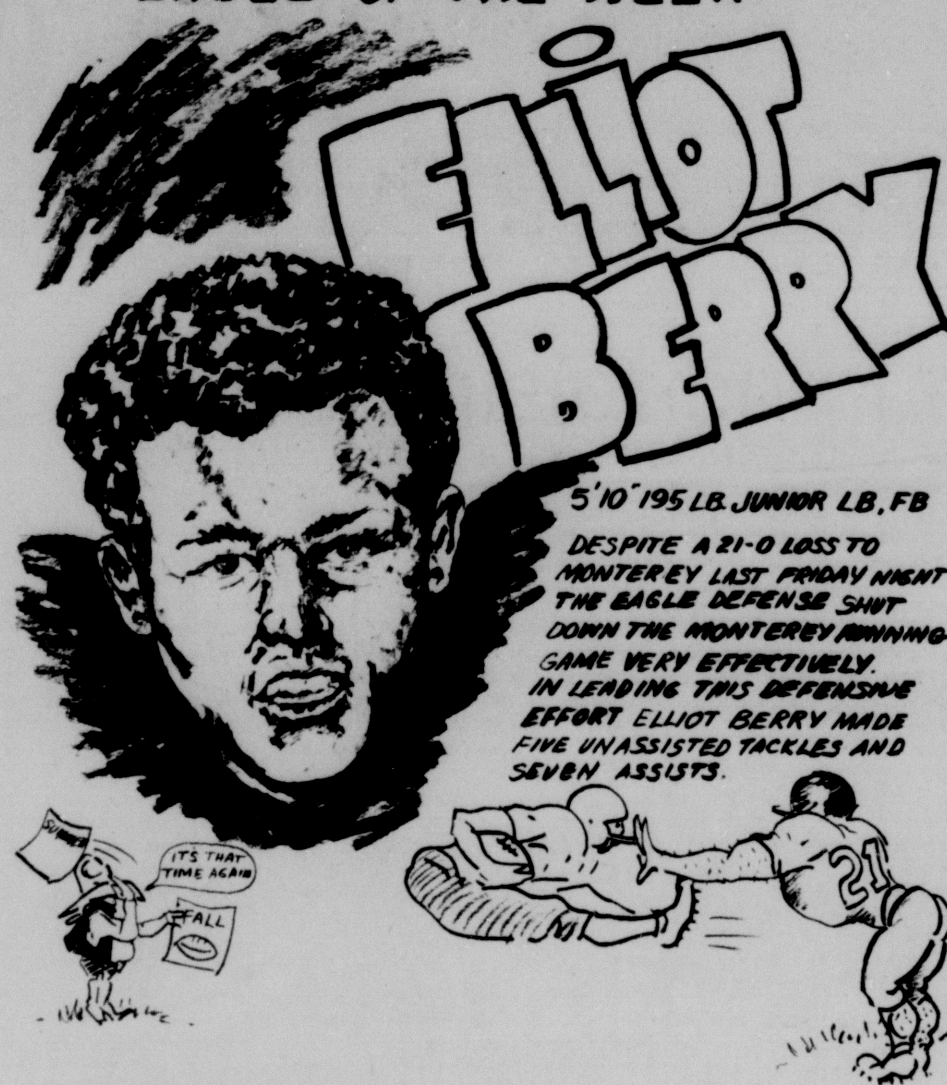

Flag football is open to boys in grades 1 through 6.

Mrs. Terry Clark, whose husband heads Kids, Inc., this year, said more coaches are also needed for flag football teams.

"You eat like Notre Dame," Cawthon is reported to have intoned in his deep south drawl. "You travel like UCLA and you play like West Texas Normal School."

I doubt that he was very popular north of Tulsa in those days.

Bufs To Face Cardinals

The West Texas State University Buffaloes of Gene Mayfield will be going to Beaumont Saturday for a confrontation with the Cardinals of Lamar University.

Both teams lost their season opener last week. The Buffs bowed to Missouri Valley for Wichita State, 13-7, while the University of Houston upended Lamar by a score of 20-3.

The Cardinals defeated the Buffs last year with the toe of Jabo Leonard. Leonard connected on three field goals to down WT, 9-7.

Buff quarterback Tully Blanchard will be helm of the Wishbone attack which accounted for 113 yards rushing and 63 yards passing last week against the Wichita State Shockers.

The Lamar offense will be led by sophomore signal caller David Silvas. Behind Silvas in the Cardinal I-formation will be running backs Anthony Pendland and Johnny Jackson.

Silvas may find the throwing difficult as the Buff secondary made up of Mishaal Kelson, Mike Lozano, Tommy Mills and Vic Hayes allowed only 51 yards through the air last week against Wichita State. WT linebacker Jeff Nunn took the defensive honors as he made 11 tackles and 11 assists and was the Buff nominee for MVC defensive player of the week.

Lamar also had some defensive bright spots in their opener. Cardinal linebacker Lonnie McGowan was credited with 12 tackles and a pass deflection in becoming the Southland Conference defensive player of the week.

The Buff offensive player of the week was Richard Perez, a sophomore guard. For his efforts, Perez is WT's nominee for offensive player of the week in the Valley.

The Strike Award for the Wichita State clash went to strong safety Mishaal Kelson. The award goes to the player who gets the biggest hit in the game. Kelson was recognized twice last year for his hard hitting. "He's beginning to get a reputation as a big hitter, and backs and receivers are starting to be aware of him," secondary coach Ronnie Mankin said.

Going into Saturday night's game, the two teams have met seven times with the Buffaloes leading the series 4-3. Gametime is 7:30 p.m.

Last Minute Figures Stall Big Randall Budget Deficit

A last-minute refiguring Monday by County Tax Collector Mrs. Audrey Bruse saved the Randall County commissioners from a $45,000 budget deficit for 1976.

Commissioners opened their unusual Monday morning session staring at columns of figures which added up to a $1.7 million budget for expenditures which exceeded by about $45,000 the estimated revenue for their next operating year.

When their session ended about 3 p.m., they had trimmed the deficit to about $1000 without extracting any expenditure item.

Mrs. Bruse, called upon during the morning session to recheck her estimated tax revenue figures for the coming year, returned after lunch to report she'd found an extra $44,000 in personal property taxes to make up the bulk of the deficit. Commissioners pondered during the morning.

With the report from Mrs. Bruse, commissioners dropped any discussion of alternative ways of cutting costs or saving money and passed the proposed document without a hitch.

Commissioners had a copy of the proposed budget for more than a week after County Auditor Betty Hodges released copies last week.

Commissioner Dee Griffin, Sr. expressed the feelings of the court when he said "there's nothing you can do about the budget. There's no use in cutting anything else out."

Griffin, who told other commissioners he stayed up past 1 a.m. Monday morning studying the document, said net income to the county had grown by about 1.2 percent excluding the tax increase income passed in August by commissioners, but that the increase in operating expenses reflected in the budget had risen by about 16 percent.

Griffin and Commissioner John Fulgenzi agreed the only possible flexible item in the budget was the funding for the county road and bridge department. But, even there the commissioners ran into trouble. "I don't see anywhere we can cut," Griffin said. "Most of these need to be increased."

At one point during the session, Griffin bemoaned the fact commissioners had reversed themselves in August after they raised taxes from $1.05 per $100 and 17 percent of valuation to $1.05 per $100 on 25 percent of valuation and lowered the rate to 95 cents per $100.

"Is there any way we can increase that back to $1.05?" he asked. Mrs. Hodges said such an increase would have to wait until next summer.

"How much would it be if we leave the elected officials' salaries the same (as the current year)?" Commissioner Jim Fletcher asked.

Griffin and Fulgenzi both protested any such move, arguing that their time was valuable and that other elected officials were deserving of raises.

Commissioners figured a 6 percent pay hike for all employees in the 1976 budget estimate.

"When you say cut all elected officials, you're making a mistake," Fulgenzi told Fletcher. "We have to keep the salaries in line with outside enterprise and it's that way in all our employees."

Fletcher agreed that salaries for employees should be as high as possible, but argued that elected officials' salaries could be cut.

Nevertheless, he agreed with Griffin that commissioners' salaries are not high enough.

"I personally think the commissioners in Randall County are not paid enough for the time they spend and the responsibilities they have," he said. "But some people in the county feel we're overpaid. We've been criticized very roughly every time county commissioners' salaries have been raised and there's been criticism from the newspapers, particularly the Canyon News."

Griffin admitted that "had I known what it would cost me financially I probably would not have run," for political office.

Later in the morning session, Fulgenzi moved the budget be adopted as it was presented, but no one seconded the motion.

Griffin suggested money might be saved by removing a secretary from the office of County Treasurer Bob McClendon, who has been at odds with the commissioners since he assumed office Jan. 1, after running on a platform calling for abolition of his office.

Commissioner Paul Lindsey counseled against the move, though, warning that removing the secretary from McClendon's office would still leave a hole to be filled in the financial business of the county.

Commissioners also discussed having Justice of the Peace W. A. "Bill" Wilson, who offices in the Canyon courthouse, and Harold Mann, juvenile probation officer, share a secretary.

No action was taken on the discussion.

Following a break for lunch, Mrs. Bruse told commissioners of the $44,000 find.

"That's all we are in the hole," County Judge Woody Pond said with relief.

"We could still be caught short before it's all over," Griffin warned.

"I don't see where we need to be," Lindsey said.

"We don't have to spend all that's in the budget," Pond responded.

A public hearing on the budget, which calls for income of $1,117,051 and expenditures of $1,762,770, will be Sept. 22.

C. Boone McClure, standing right, and Dr. C. C. Callarman, members of the Sons of the American Revolution, watch Monday as Dr. J. Manly Bryan, Canyon mayor, signs a proclamation naming Sept. 17 as Citizenship Day in the city and designating the week of Sept. 17-23 as Constitution Week in the city. The SAR is this year sponsoring the two commemorative designations as the city and country enter the bicentennial year.

Grant Request Goes To PRPC

An application for $22,000 in federal money for paving streets in West Canyon went to the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission Wednesday without the benefit of public comment.

City Admin. Asst. Tom Plumlee turned the application into PRPC officials for review and comment before it is passed on to federal Department of Housing and Urban Development officials for consideration.

The city was asked to apply for the funding by HUD a month ago about nine months after a mix-up in HUD fund availability. The city had originally been scheduled to receive more than $700,000 from HUD for various urban developments, but a mathematical error cut Canyon completely off from the funding. A new law passed last summer reinstated Canyon's funding but at a lesser level.

The application calls for the funds to be used to pave streets in West Canyon. City officials have tentatively discussed portions of 6th Street for the project, but note that $22,000 will pave only about four blocks.

A public hearing, during which local residents were to comment on the application, was held Monday night during a regular city commission meeting, but no one showed up to talk about the application.

Only a handful of residents had shown up last December when a similar public hearing was held.

In other business Monday night, commissioners approved a contract with A. W. Lair to pave streets in his Hunsley Hills development. Lair bid $34,441 for the paving project, well under other bidders. Jake Diehl bid $44,722; High Plains bid $42,227, and J. Lee Miligan bid $42,234.

Lair is to complete the project within 90 days.

Two police vehicles were also purchased from Imperial Chevrolet of Canyon even though the firm did not submit the lowest bid. The company bid $9,013 for two vehicles. Other bidders were Jess Stout Ford of Canyon for $8,957 and Stevenson Motor Co. for $9,170.

Commissioners rejected the Ford bid because, according to City Manager Glen Metcalf, Imperial's bid came closest to meeting the specifications outlined for the purchase. He said none of the bids met all specifications.

Commissioners appointed a new parks and recreation board. Members will be Phil Langen, manager of the university bookstore; George Ritter, an assistant professor of government; Virginia Cotten, continuing education director for Canyon school district; Buddy Taylor, owner of Taylor & Sons Grocery; and Mrs. A. L. Crossland, local Realtor.

Metcalf said the new committee, formed only last month by commission action, must meet to select a chairman and to decide terms of office.

Langen had led a group urging construction of new parks in the city and commissioners formed the new board as a result of the work of the formerly ad hoc group.

Commissioners also passed a new electrical ordinance, which outlines specifications which must be followed in home construction and repair.

Caballero Challenges Two On WTSU Hearing Committee

Dr. Emilio Caballero, who has asked for an open hearing to determine whether he will be retained as head of the West Texas State University art department, has issued pre-emptory challenges removing two officials from the committee which is to hear his case.

Miss Karen Johnson, university legal counsel, said Tuesday Caballero has challenged the membership of Dr. Bob Sawvell, head of the geography department, and Dr. Thad Friedell, dean of the School of Arts and Sciences.

The two were removed from the committee as a result of the challenges. They had been named to the committee last week as a result of a vote taken among all university department heads and deans.

Caballero has the right to the pre-emptory challenges under a procedure established for his case in August by university regents. Miss Johnson said Dr. Dan White, acting dean of the College of Education, and Dr. Horace Bailey, head of the biology department, have replaced Sawvell and Friedell on the hearing committee.

She said the committee is to meet Thursday at which time Caballero's attorney, George Whittenburg of Amarillo, will be given the opportunity to challenge any committee member for cause.

The committee itself will vote to decide whether one of its number should be eliminated from the committee as a result of a cause challenge, she said.

Miss Johnson said the university President Dr. Lloyd I. Watkins will not issue any pre-emptory challenges and will not challenge any members for cause.

Dr. Charles Smallwood, dean of the School of Agriculture, was named chairman of the committee in a vote taken last week.

The committee has tentatively set Sept. 25 as the date for a public hearing on the Caballero complaint that he was forced to resign as department chairman last January. Caballero was reinstated by regents in June and the due process procedure was established.

Caballero was informed by letter two weeks ago he would not be retained as department chairman, but would continue at WTSU as a full professor of art. He has been department head about 20 years.

Following receipt of the letter from Watkins, Caballero gave notice he would ask for a full hearing on the merits of his case.

Regents will hear any appeal of the hearing committee's decision on the case.

Sales Totaled

July sales of Series E and H
United States Savings Bonds in Randall County were reported today by County Bond Chairman
Don Max Vars.
Sales for the seven-month period totaled $124,834 for 67% of the 1975 sales goal of $250,000.

Budget. . .

Randall County, they will also pay more for each service or office of county government and, in some cases they will pay far more.

The Potter County auditor's office, for example, had five employees when the year began and will cost taxpayers about $75,000 during 1975. The auditor's office in Randall County will cost only $10,000 during the same period.

The Potter County treasurer's office is budgeted about $30,000 for the year, while the Randall County treasurer is expected to spend about $10,000.

A total of $53,600 is budgeted for the operation of the Potter County agricultural extension agent and home demonstration agent office this year. Across the line in Randall County, taxpayers will spend about $15,000 for the year for the same office.

Health and welfare services in Potter County are budgeted about $81,000 for 1975, while in Randall County only $15,000 is budgeted for the function.

The correctional function in Potter County, which includes expenditures for the audit and juvenile probation offices, is budgeted $250,000 for the fiscal year. In Randall County, the same function is budgeted $63,000.

Maintenance of buildings and structures in Potter County is budgeted to cost $187,000 for 1975, while in Randall County the maintenance of buildings is budgeted only $42,000.

The tax collector's office in Potter County is expected to cost $371,000 during the fiscal year, and in Randall County the same office with fewer employees is expected to cost $175,000.

The Potter County sheriff's office, with 62 employees when the year started, is budgeted $913,000 for the fiscal year, including expenses for care of prisoners, automobile expenses, salaries and related costs. But, in Randall County, the sheriff, with a staff of 17, anticipates expenditures totalling $211,000 for the year to cover the same items.

In fact, virtually every office or function in Potter County not only costs more in total dollars but costs more per capita than does the same office or function in Randall County.

Some Potter County offices or functions budgeted for expenditures even outshine the same offices or functions in Lubbock County, which has a 1975 population of just under 200,000 persons or more than twice the number of residents in Potter County.

While Lubbock County has twice as many residents to serve as does Potter County, the South Plains city has a budget which totals less than $1 million more than Potter County's.

Lubbock County commissioners have approved a budget for 1975 of $5,391,052.

The Lubbock County auditor's office has a budget for 1975 of $70,000. Potter County's budget for the auditor's office reflects figures of $75,000. The Lubbock County treasurer's office, the Lubbock County extension office, the Lubbock County clerk's office, the Lubbock County district clerk's office, the Lubbock County district attorney's office, the Lubbock County justices of the peace, and the Lubbock County sheriff's office are all projected to cost less in total dollars than are similar offices or functions in Potter County this year.

County government in Lubbock County will cost each man, woman and child $24 this year,
again comparing unfavorably with Potter County's per capita anticipated expenditure of $48, and favorably with Randall County's anticipated per capita disbursement of about $20.

Why are expenditures — both total and per capita — so high in Potter County? Or, conversely, why are they so low in Randall County?

Both counties, it could be argued, are the children of Texas constitutional and statutory laws, which prescribe that the Texas county shall perform certain functions and shall provide offices for certain elected offices.

Part of the answer to those questions lies in the fact that Potter County's government incorporates several offices and offices which perform certain functions, while in Randall County, those functions are either consolidated under an existing office or are simply not provided.

Randall County, for example, has no court of domestic relations, which is expected to cost Potter County taxpayers $50,000 during 1975.
Nor does Randall County have a county court at law, which in 1975 is expected to cost Potter County taxpayers another nearly $50,000. Likewise, Randall County taxpayers do not pay for a county attorney, while Potter County residents will expend an anticipated $163,000 this year for such an office.

Those offices which Potter County government includes but which are absent in Randall County government are those offices primarily related to law enforcement or criminal justice.

Potter County Judge Branch Archer attributes the need for additional offices to the high crime rate in the Amarillo urban area, a problem afflicting primarily the Potter County portion of the city. His attribution is seemingly backed up by fairly representative figures from the district attorney's offices in each county. In Potter County in 1973, for example, 443 felonies were filed and indictments were returned against 392. For the same year in Randall County, only 151 felonies were filed and indictments were returned against 101.

Archer also attributes the higher cost of county government in Potter County to another factor — a kind of differential point a county reaches population-wise over which such services or functions are demanded or needed. The Lubbock County figures would seem to negate this factor, however, because in Lubbock County, government does not include a county attorney or a court of domestic relations. The law enforcement function itself costs far less in Lubbock County, and is handled by fewer employees, than in Potter County. In Lubbock County, the sheriff's department with 56 employees is budgeted $489,000 for the year while in Potter County with 62 employees, the sheriff's department cost is estimated to be $913,000.

The difference in cost of government in Potter and Randall counties might also be attributed to the demographic differences in the make-up of the populations of the two counties.
Potter County, it could be assumed, has a higher cost for welfare, public service and health because of the relatively large minority and poverty-level population within the Potter County portion of Amarillo. It could also be assumed that, alternatively, Randall County, with one of the highest per capita income figures in Texas according to 1970 census reports, would pay less for these services.

Another factor which contributes to the relatively lower cost of government in Randall County is that Randall County pays Potter County to administer, and in fact, handle some functions for Randall County. Services such as the housing of district judges, adult probation housing and staffing, and some welfare functions are performed largely by Potter County with Randall County simply paying a fee.

Whatever the mitigating factors either separately or as a whole, it is a fact that for a large portion of the Amarillo urban area county government costs less than for another portion which is only steps or blocks away.

these problems money would have to be spent and would probably necessitate a tax hike.
This is the least we can do for our children. It is long overdue."

Specifically, Kent's subgroup
recommended that six tennis courts be constructed immediately because university tennis courts will not "be open to the public much longer." They recommended construction of a fieldhouse on the high school campus, construction of a band room, construction of an all-weather track, an additional football practice field, and a new baseball complex.

Mrs. Susan Dolle, chairman of a subcommittee studying space needs for the special education classes in local schools, reported that each student in special education requires more space than the student in a regular classroom. She said 490 students are now involved in special education programs in the district.

Mrs. Phil Swartzell, chairman of a subgroup to study the possible implementation of half-day school, said her committee found that half-day school, with students attending classes only half-day either morning or evening sessions, would significantly raise operation costs.

urged to join the fundraising effort.

Space for clubs and/or individuals to display and sell their wares will be made available by the organizing group and those participating will be requested to set aside 25% or more to the should contact one of the follow-

"We couldn't see much advantage to this," she said.

Mrs. Swartzell said her committee also studied the possibility of using a college-type schedule for classes, but again found no advantages.

Mrs. Murphy White reported for her subcommittee that cafeteria facilities in the schools—even in the high school where only about 200 students eat daily—should not be eliminated with the space used for classrooms.

She said the cafeteria is necessary for those students who eat in the facility and provides a valuable social function.

No future meeting date was set for the whole committee, but Davis instructed each subcommittee to continue studying their problem areas.

He also asked that committee members meet tonight with members of the citizens' Committee for Sound Finance. That committee meets at 7:30 p.m. today at the junior high school.

PUBLIC NOTICE

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS (SJR NO. 11)
SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1975

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the separation of powers, legislative and executive provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article II, Separation of Powers, is amended to:

Provide that the powers of government of the State of Texas are divided among three distinct branches: legislative, executive, and judicial. Except as otherwise authorized by the constitution, members of one branch may not exercise any power properly attached to either of the others.

Article III, The Legislature, is amended to:

Continue the present structure of the legislature consisting of a senate with 31 members and a house of representatives with 150 members. The present organization and procedure of the legislature are continued except that the provision allowing closed executive sessions of the senate is omitted. Provisions on the conflict of interest of members of the legislature are continued, as is the governor's power to veto bills or line items in appropriation bills. The article provides for single-member senatorial, representative, and congressional districts. A compensation commission is created to recommend the compensation and allowances to be received by members of the legislature. The legislative compensation, set by law, may not exceed this recommendation and does not take effect until after an intervening general election. The article provides for annual sessions of 140 days in odd-numbered years and 90 days in even-numbered years, and a veto session of 15 days upon request of three-fifths of the membership of each house. The legislature may meet in organizational sessions prior to the convening of the legislature in regular sessions.

Article IV, The Executive, is amended to:

Continue the present status of the governor and all other statewide officers, and include the commissioner of agriculture as an executive department officer. The governor is limited to two consecutive terms. The governor is authorized to designate chairmen of state boards, and to remove gubernatorial appointees to state agencies for cause unless the removal is vetoed by the senate. The article mandates the legislature to provide a new governor-elect an appropriation so the governor-elect may organize an office prior to inauguration, and permits the legislature to grant powers of fiscal control to the governor. All governmental agencies, with several exceptions, have a life of not more than ten years unless extended by the legislature, and, at the regular session held in odd-numbered years, the governor shall submit to the legislature a report on the organization and efficiency of the executive branch.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the SEPARATION OF POWERS, LEGISLATIVE, AND EXECUTIVE PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective January 1, 1976, except Article III, Section 5, which becomes effective January 1, 1981.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the judiciary provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article V, The Judiciary is amended to:

Establish a unified judicial system consisting of the supreme court, court of appeals, district courts, and circuit courts. Existing county courts and county judges are continued until otherwise provided by law. All judges (except municipal judges), district attorneys and district clerks must be elected by the people. The supreme court and the court of criminal appeals are merged into a single court of last resort, and this supreme court is authorized to provide for efficient administration of the judicial system and to balance case loads. Individual rights for a trial by jury and appeal by the accused are continued. The state is granted the right to appeal in criminal cases in limited circumstances, and the legislature is permitted to establish methods of appeal to the courts from decisions of state agencies.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the JUDICIARY PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Provide for registration and qualifications for voting including voter residency requirements to be established by law. A citizen of the United States who is at least 18 years of age and who meets the registration and residence requirements provided by law is a qualified voter unless the person has been convicted of a felony and for that felony is incarcerated, on parole, or on probation, or unless the person is mentally incompetent as determined by a court. Voting by the people in all elections must be by secret ballot, and the legislature shall provide by law for residence, registration, and absentee voting requirements, for the administration of elections, and for the protection of the electoral process. The general election for state and county officers is to be held in even-numbered years on a date prescribed by law.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the VOTING AND ELECTION PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the education provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VII, Education, is amended to:

Provide that the Permanent and Available School Funds and the county public school funds are continued for the support of the free public schools. The State Board of Education is retained and the Permanent and Available University Funds are continued for the benefit of The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. A new Higher Education Fund for Texas is established for the benefit of colleges and universities outside The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. The state ad valorem tax of ten cents on $100 valuation is continued as the source of revenue for the Fund. The ten cent higher education tax may be changed by law within the ten cent maximum. The legislature may allocate by law a portion of the Higher Education Fund to certain state vocational and technical institutes. The article provides that the public education system must furnish each individual an equal educational opportunity, but a school district may provide local enrichment of educational programs exceeding the level provided by the state consistent with general law. Authority to issue Permanent University Bonds is continued but the bonds may not exceed 30% of the Permanent University Fund.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

Provide that state taxes may be levied and collected only by general law and to prohibit any state ad valorem tax on real property or tangible personal property except the ten cent tax provided for in Article VII and a tax of two cents on the $100 assessed valuation to provide funds for the State Building Fund. Provides that all real property and tangible personal property must be taxed equally and uniformly in proportion to market value. Existing exemptions from ad valorem taxation are continued. The present dedication of motor fuel taxes for highway purposes and the Available School Fund is retained. The "pay-as-you-go" principle for the operation of state government is retained. The legislature shall establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of open-space land devoted to farm or ranch purposes and may establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of forest land devoted to timber production. The $3000 exemption from state ad valorem taxation for residential homesteads is continued and the legislature by law may increase this amount. A separate $3000 exemption from ad valorem taxation by political subdivisions is provided for the residential homestead of persons at least 65 years of age and the political subdivision may increase this amount. The legislature by law may exempt from ad valorem taxation certain property owned by veterans' organizations, nonprofit water corporations, and persons in need because of age or disability, and economic circumstance. The legislature may also exempt property to preserve historical, cultural or natural history resources. Taxpayers are provided a new method of correcting inequitable tax assessments by paying ad valorem taxes under protest and suing for a refund in a district court. State debt may be authorized by law only if approved by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the state voting on the question. Public funds and public credit may be used only for public purposes and no public funds or public credit may be used to influence the election of a public officer. The article prohibits a retail sales tax on agricultural machinery or parts, fertilizer, feeds or seeds, prescription drugs or medicine, or food, except food sold by restaurants for immediate consumption. An assessment voted by marine food or agricultural producers on their product sales is not a tax if provision is made for the individual producer to receive a refund of the assessment when the producer does not desire to be assessed.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the FINANCE PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976, except Article VIII, Section 2, Subsections (b) and (c), which becomes effective January 1, 1978, and Article VIII, Section 6, Subsection (c), which becomes effective January 1, 1979.

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the local government provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article IX, Local Government, is amended to:

Provide that the counties of the state are those that exist on the date of adoption of the local government article and that county boundaries may be changed if approved by a majority of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. Counties may be merged or county seats relocated if approved by two-thirds of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. The present elected constitutional county offices are retained and four year terms of office are provided. The voters of a county may create additional offices, eliminate offices, or combine the duties and functions of offices. The voters may also grant ordinance making power to the governing body of the county. Cities and towns having more than 1,500 inhabitants may become home-rule cities. Tax limitations are established for operating purposes for cities and counties and the legislature is required to fix debt limits for cities, towns, counties, and school and community junior college districts.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the general provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article X, General Provisions, is amended to:

Provide the basic requirements relating to public officeholders such as the official oath and residency requirements. The provision defining the separate and community property of spouses is retained, and the protection of a homestead from forced sale is continued. The legislature is required to protect certain personal property from forced sale. Current wages for personal service are not subject to garnishment. A private corporation may not be chartered except under general law, and no bank may engage in business at more than one place in this state. The legislature must provide for the regulation of bank holding companies. The present system of local-option elections for the prohibition or sale of alcoholic beverages is continued. The legislature is required to prohibit lotteries and gift enterprises but may permit certain bingo games and raffles. The presently existing provisions for retirement benefits of teachers and other public employees are modified to allow the state to contribute more than 10%.

A policy that the quality of the environment of the State of Texas is to be protected is established, and the legislature is required to implement and enforce this policy. No state funds may be used to remove surface water from the river basin of origin if the surface water is necessary to supply the reasonably foreseeable water requirements of the basin for the ensuing 50 years, unless the removal of water is sufficiently replaced to the point of removal from outside the state or is on a temporary, interim basis. The seaward beaches of the Gulf of Mexico and coastal submerged lands belonging to the state are held by the state in perpetual trust for the people, and subject to reasonable limitations prescribed by law, the public has the free and unrestricted right of use and benefit of the beaches. The provision is continued that, except as otherwise provided by law, a rate of interest in excess of ten percent a year is usurious, and that if a contract does not specify a rate of interest, the rate under the contract may not exceed six percent a year. Discrimination against handicapped persons is prohibited, and a goal of the state is established to provide every resident access to adequate, comprehensive health care.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the GENERAL PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the mode of amending provisions of the Texas Constitution. The proposed article will be the last article of the constitution. If only Proposition No. 8 is adopted, the article will replace Article XVII of the present constitution. If other propositions are adopted, the article will be appropriately renumbered to remain the last article of the constitution. If all propositions are adopted, the article will be Article XI. Article XVII, Mode of Amending the Constitution of the State, is amended to:

Establish a procedure for constitutional amendments requiring a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and majority approval by the voters. The calling of a limited or unlimited constitutional convention with voter approval is provided. The question of whether to call a constitutional convention must be submitted to the people every 30 years.

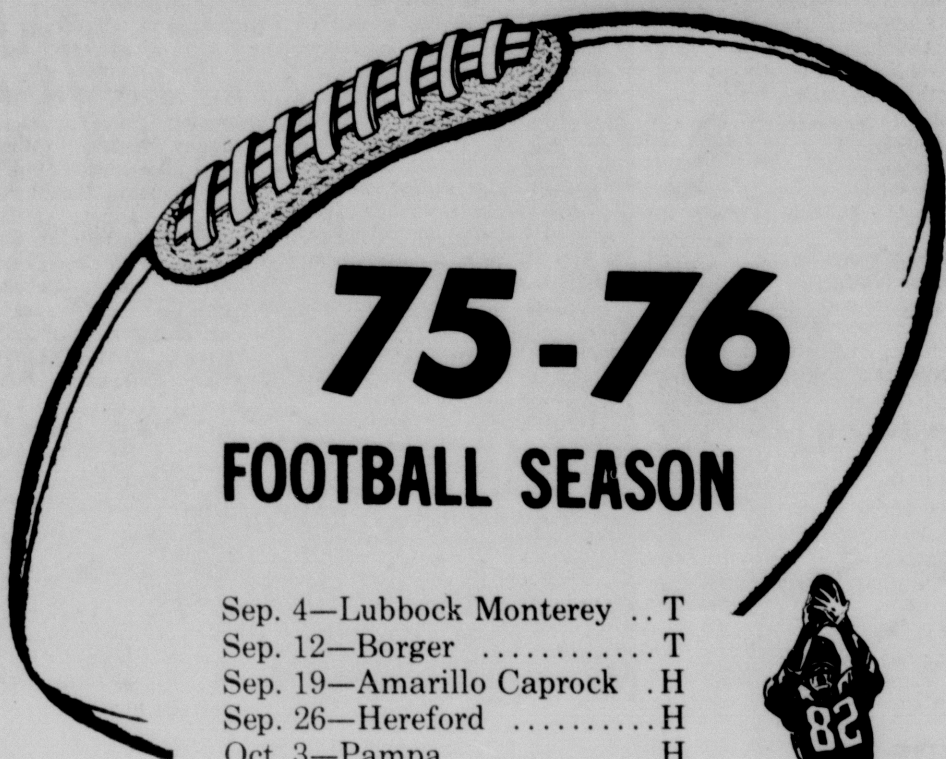

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the MODE OF AMENDING PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

Umbarger Folks Prepare For Annual Feast

BY REBA RAEF

WHEN IT'S KRAUT cutting time in Umbarger, can the German Sausage Festival be far behind?

A good many parishoners gathered at the parish hall Tuesday to "cut and stomp" the cabbage that will be served as kraut at our annual German Sausage Festival, to be held in November. We made 320 gallons of kraut and it will be ready in plenty of time.

The chairman of the kraut this year is Mrs. Ben Koch and her co-chairman is Mrs. R. D. Friemel.

Overall chairman of the Festival is Jim Skarke and Joe Grotgut is the co-chairman.

ST. MARY'S CONFRA-TERNITY of Christian Doctrine classes were formally opened at the 10:00 Mass last Sunday morning. The youth choir and band, under the direction of Rose Mary Ramaekers played and sang the beautiful Bossa Nova Mass.

A BELATED "HAPPY Birthday" to Marianne Wieck, whose birthday was September 6th.

MR. AND MRS. Richard E.
Friemel and Valerie have returned from a trip to points in South Texas. They first attended a Krischke family reunion,
which was held in Schulenburg, (Richard's mother was a Kris-chke), where some 200 members of the Krischke clan were in attendance.

They also visited in High Hill
and attended a parish picnic
there and visited relatives in San Antonio. They went on down to Padre Island and saw where the hurricane came in on the land and Lillian said the high water had washed a lot of sand all over the streets of Raymondville and the parking lot of the motel where they stayed had so much sand piled up that it had to be moved with machinery.

They were gone about eight days and Lillian said the trip was very enjoyable, but it was so nice to come back home.

IN CASE THE residents of Umbarger are wondering why
the church bell rings each morning at eleven o'clock, it is to remind all who hear it to pray for the tragedy of abortions around the world. The bell will continue to ring for this purpose for an indefinite time.

Crisp Mornings Signal Fall's Return

By DORIS MCKEE

ANOTHER WEEK HAS now slipped by and time has rolled around to the latest happenings
here at Siesta.

Seems fall is really in the air and these mornings are really cool, just hope we aren't being prepared for too early a winter.

WOULD LIKE to wish Roscoe and Sharon Shipley a belated Happy Anniversary. They celebrated their 6th on September 6th.

Had a party? Or giving one? Tell The Canyon News about it. Telephone 655-7121, or stop by the News office on the south side of the square.

CLINTON WEETER HAD a birthday Sept.
4th. He turned 7
and celebrated with a party. A belated Happy Birthday to him. He is the son of Larry and Norma Weeter.

WHILE WE ARE on birthdays our daughter, DeAnn, celebrated her 5th birthday on Sunday, Sept. 7 with an afternoon party.

We played games and had cake and ice cream. Those attending were: Annette Pope, Kathie and Davis Rinne, Vicki and Mike Barnett, Christy and Marty Hoffman, Shannon, Randy and Toni

Jones, and of course Tod.

De Ann's grandmother, Mrs.
E. M. Weaver of Lubbock was here also and she spent the entire week end.

TALKED TO DOROTHY
Robertson and learned that her mother, Mrs. Jim McMath of Albuquerque, N.M. has been here visiting for the past week.

CALLED IRENE WEA-THERLY to see what she and T.

daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Rogers, Robin and Kealy of Mountain Home,
Arkansas came for a visit.

PEGGY GORE'S SON hurt

speedy recovery.

HUGH ROWLEY OR Uncle
Skinny as most everyone knows him, flew to Denver over the week end to visit his son, Clayton, who is in the VA hospital there.

ANNETTE POPE AND DeAnn McKee are going to private kindergarten this year.
After two weeks they both think they are really learning. Just keep plugging and both of you will learn it all. Annette is the daughter of Alice Pope and DeAnn is mine.

TALKED TO SHARON
Jones a few days ago. She,
James, Shannon, Randy and Toni went to Celeste, Texas over Labor Day week end and attended the school reunion
there. James attended school there.

There was a parade, lot of visiting, class parties, country singing and music on Saturday night and then Sunday noon a big barbecue was held.

He was stationed in south

season games.

GUESS IT IS time for me to sign off for this week, but I'll be here next time, so Keep on Reading.

If any of you have news, please call me and let's get it in the

By KAROLYN FARMER
A MATHEMATICAL PROBLEM generally just has one answer. An algebraic equation may be harder to solve than simple addition, but usually the degree of difficulty is dependent on knowledge and ability.

There are lots of questions being asked in our community these days. And most of these questions center around problems for which even a mathematical genius could not find an easy solution.

Each of us has his or her own set of values formed by a lifetime of experiences. For most, their family, service to God and other people, and earning an honest living rate highest in importance.

We can only hope, as solutions are arrived at and decisions are made, that each citizen of our county will have made a conscious examination of his own priorities.

We can only pray that God will grant us the wisdom to place our values on the right things and to unite together for the benefit of everyone involved.

GERRY WOODWARD RECENTLY discovered that life can unexpectedly take a "turn" for the worse. Gerry, who teaches third grade at Gene Howe, was playing tennis with her family on Labor Day when she made a wrong turn.

She broke two bones in her foot and now has a cast on her leg extending above the knee. Gerry spent last week in Northwest Texas Hospital and will be mending at home for an indefinite period of time.

Fortunately Gerry's mother, Mrs. Zola Gresham, of Snyder, Oklahoma has offered to help out in the Woodward home while Gerry is "out of pocket."

Ellen Hickerson is substituting for Gerry at Gene Howe. Ellen has taught at our school before and will be working closely with Gerry until she is able to return to her class.

PEGGY CRANFILL IS another new addition to the Gene Howe staff. Peggy is serving as an LLD Assistant this year. She formerly was an instructional aide at Ridgecrest School in Amarillo for two years and did substitute teaching in special education for one year. Prior to that Peggy served as secretary at South Georgia School in Amarillo.

Peggy is originally from Sherman, Texas and her husband, Lowell, grew up in nearby Collinsville. Lowell is employed at the Pantex Plant.

The Cranfills have two sons: Kenneth is a senior at C.H.S.; and Alan is in Mrs. Green's sixth grade class at Gene Howe.

The entire family enjoys camping out and fishing, while Peggy's special loves are working in the garden and embroidering.

Peggy and her family have lived in the Gene Howe area for three years. She says they all love it and just wish they had made the move sooner than they did.

ONEAL CALL WILL soon be launching a new business venture. The Calls have purchased a fishing resort at Toledo Bend Lake north of Houston.

The resort will be called "Seed's Place" and will feature a grocery store, restaurant, recreation room, motel units, trailer houses, camper hookups and a marina.

"Seed" Call plans to be open for business on October 15th. The resort is on Six Mile Creek near Hemphill, TX. So if any of you are planning a fishing or camping trip down that way, be sure to stop at "Seed's Place."

Claudia and Cathy will continue to keep the "old home fires" burning until they are able to join Seed later this year.

CUB SCOUT PACK 130 has organized for this year. Billy Edwards will be serving as Cubmaster.

Leaders for Den 1 are Sarah Edwards and Phyllis Hicks. The boys in the den are Jay Edwards, John Hicks, Brent Zachary, Delbert Hollis, Greg Cates, Mike Cunningham, David Ashley and John Meier.

Den 2 leaders are Pat Meier and Pat Seth. The Cubs in that den are Chris Seth, Don Meier, Donnie Myers, Clay Sutton, Troy Cates and Royal Yarbrough.

Leading Den 5 are Mary Wilcox and Pat Boren. Den 5 Cubs are Todd Wilcox, Curtis Boren, Ron Bostick, John McDaniel, Casey Myers, Kevin Sorrells and Scott Kozak.

Den 6 will be led by June Vandlandingham, with Cubs Lynn Vandlandingham, DeWayne Kyle, Britt Foster, Gary Glenn, Glen Moore and Sean Cronan.

Johnny Hicks and John Zachary will serve as Committeemen for the Pack.

Pack 130 will participate in a bike rodeo at 9:00, Sept. 20th at Sears in Amarillo. The next Pack meeting will be Sept. 25th.

TOMMY AND LINDA Ford, Corey, Jana and Linda Thomas all spent last week end in Bixby, Oklahoma as part of a Lay Witness Mission Program.

They were hosted by the River-view Baptist Church in Bixby and spent the week end assisting in evangelism and witnessing. Linda Ford accompanied Linda Thompson as they also gave musical testimonies during the services.

SYMPATHIES ARE EXTENDED TO Dwyane and Sandy Bullard. Dwyane's father, Roy Bullard, passed away in Amarillo on Sunday and funeral services were held the following day. Mr. Bullard had been a resident of the Amarillo Health Care Center.

Sandy Bullard is the daughter of Ronnie and Jackie Mayfield.

TROYCE MULHERIN AND her sister, Joyce Thompson, are now displaying their many talents in their own store. The ladies are partners in the newly opened Jewel Gallery which is located in Wolfen Square in Amarillo.

The store will feature custom jewelry, oil paintings, water colors, macrame, gift items and many other types of crafts. They will be open from 10:00 to 5:30, except on Mondays.

Troyce says that the coffee pot is always on. So be sure to drop by The Jewel Gallery and visit with Troyce and Joyce soon. As a matter of fact, that would probably be the perfect place to begin your Christmas shopping.

MRS. EDIE ARMSTRONG, past State PTA President of Texas, presided at an orientation meeting recently for District 8 PTA officers. Troyce Mulherin, who is District 8 Vice President, was one of those in attendance.

LLOYD AND CAROLYN Block have purchased a farm near Roosevelt, Oklahoma. Luckily for us, however, the Blocks will continue to live in our area and Lloyd will only don his farmer's hat every few weeks when he visits their new farm.

Lisa Block, who is in Mrs. Tillinghast's first grade class, is probably the most excited member of her family. Her mother says Lisa really enjoys riding the tractor.

Carolyn is also keeping busy this year by attending Amarillo College. She is now in her third semester of the court reporting course at the college.

JIMMY AND BARBARA Lill, Becky and Doug, are new residents at Lake Tanglewood. The Lills moved to Lake Tanglewood from Amarillo last June.

Jimmy is an independent contractor, engaged both in building and remodeling homes.

Becky is a freshman at C. J.H.S. and Doug is in Mrs. Shoemaker's sixth grade class at Gene Howe. Both of the Lill children enjoy playing basketball.

Barbara says their family especially enjoys the water sports and activities at Lake Tanglewood. Jimmy is also an avid golfer.

PORTIA TILLINGHAST HAS a roomful of youngsters in her first grade class this year. But as I entered the room everyone was amazingly quiet and attentive (especially for first graders).

The boys and girls were listening to a record designed to help them learn the sounds of letters and words. As they listened, they filled in worksheets. Portia said that this was also important as they learn to follow instructions.

Portia also explained the process involved as she teaches the children the sounds as they prepare to learn to read. At various times the children will work both as a large group and then in small groups at the reading circle and at the listening table.

Portia uses what she calls "Magic Pictures" to help the children remember specific letter sounds. The picture of a dog and the letter "D" she explained, gives the children a specific mental picture to remember when they see the letter.

I also got acquainted (from a distance) with the class's science project, Silly Sam. Sam is a fat, healthy looking salamander whose chief diet consists of grasshoppers.

Portia told me that different children in the class are assigned to provide food for Sam each day. On Monday Christy Bavousett brought 13 grasshoppers to school, which should keep Sam happy for quite a while.

The calendar in Mrs. Tillinghast's room says, "Let's make this year a great big hit," and features a big white bunny hitting a baseball.

Another bulletin board has almost life-sized pictures of a boy and girl dressed in bright calico, with the words, "Welcome to 1st Grade."

One item in the room which Portia says all the children love is the aquarium. Bright colored fish swim among the blue rocks and shells. Portia said that watching the fish swim is a great "tranquilizer" for the children. The class will soon be studying a unit on fish and their teacher hopes to acquire some large snails for the aquarium.

I also had a chance to join Mrs. Tillinghast's class during their P. E. period. P. E. teacher, Gary Beasley, assisted by Darlene Plank, led the children in some vigorous exercises. They followed that by playing "Follow the Leader," which involved running the length of the playground.

Gary told me that the children really enjoy playing action games with the parachute. One of the games involves the children holding the edge of the parachute as they run in a circle.

Certainly Portia Tillinghast's class was in good hands both in the classroom and on the playground, and they were all obviously enjoying life as first graders.

THE 6TH GRADE football team coached by Bob Trook is looking forward to their first official game this Sunday. Bob is assisted this year by Tom Grimes and Robert Drexler.

SUZY ZEVELY, WHO has been assisting in the school office, will be moving to Ft. Knox, Kentucky in October. Monday was Suzy's last day on the job.

Her husband, Dan, is a Second Lieutenant in the Army and will be stationed at Ft. Knox. Dan taught P. E. at Rex Reeves last year.

Suzy is originally from Perryton, while Dan is a native of Canyon. Suzy plans to devote her time to being a housewife after they are moved into their new home.

RONNIE AND JACKIE Mayfield, Angela, Sherry and Kelly spent last week end visiting relatives in Lubbock, Artesia, N.M. and touring the caverns at Carlsbad.

Ronnie and Jackie also recently spent several days at Vermajo Park near Raton, N.M. Jackie said that everything at the fishing resort was furnished for them (meals, a boat, etc.), so they really enjoyed just fishing and relaxing.

DONNIE AND RAYDELL Palmer, Shonda and Shane spent this past week end in Lawton, Oklahoma where they attended the NCRA Races. Donnie's super modified car was entered in the races and was driven by Johnny Suggs of Dallas. The Palmer car won the "B" Main final event.

The Palmers also enjoyed visiting with Raydell's brother, Deral Wakefield, his wife Dot and their daughter, D'Ann of Denton, Texas. Deral is the twin brother of Darlene Campbell.

THE GENE HOWE PTA Executive Committee met at the school on Monday, Sept. 8. Thirteen members of the committee were present. Items discussed included the publication of the school directory and a newsletter to parents, ways of raising money to purchase playground equipment and plans to attend a future meeting of the C.I.S.D. School Board.

AURILA CURRIE AND I were among those who attended a PTA workshop Tuesday sponsored by the Amarillo Area Council.

Rosemary Sampley, State Councils Chairman of PTA for Texas was the speaker. She had lots of helpful hints and answered many questions about the function of the local PTA unit.

Rosemary's main emphasis was on developing an understanding among the members of the Executive Committee and everyone in the community. She emphasized, too, that each person in the community shares in the responsibility for their schools.

Aurila Currie is Health Chairman of Texas PTA and also serves as Parliamentarian of the Rex Reeves PTA.

UMW Tea Sunday

A fall tea for members of the United Methodist Women and other guests has been scheduled for Sunday afternoon, Sept. 14, from 3-5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Bill Kent, 2107 3rd Avenue.

Heart Unit Lays Plans For Cyclethon

Randall County unit of the American Heart Association met recently at the law offices of Lair and Reeves for a planning discussion with president, Reggie Reeves, in charge.

Plans were discussed for conducting a cyclethon project on October 4 as a fundraising effort for the Heart Association here. The group does not have a door-to-door campaign for raising funds and those entrants in the cyclethon will be requested to seek out individual sponsors as well as merchant sponsors.

Entry forms will be available to student cyclists at the public schools later in September and will also be available to university students at the Activities Center. Entrants will seek their own sponsors for the ride.

In other business, the local Heart Association chapter made plans to conduct four blood pressure clinics for the public during the current year. These free clinics will be manned and coordinated by the West Texas State University School of Nursing and will include clinics at both city banks, at the Senior Citizens building, at Palo Duro Hospital and at a selected site on the WTSU campus. Dates for the clinics will be announced as plans progress.

Ida Brock's Rites On Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida Brock, 83, were held Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 10, at Schooler-Gordon Funeral Chapel in Canyon.

Mrs. Brock died Monday morning at LaCasa Canyon Nursing Home in Canyon. She was born July 13, 1892 at Claude, Texas and came to Canyon in 1930 from Channing. She was married to T.M. Brock at Claude, Texas July 17, 1910. His death occurred in 1969.

Census Sample Of Households

The Bureau of the Census will survey a sample of households in this area during mid-September to determine the extent people have been immunized against selected diseases.

The immunization survey is conducted throughout the U.S. every year and provides information on immunization against measles, influenza, smallpox, polio, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, rubella, and mumps. This information is needed for administration of health programs geared to disease prevention.

These health questions are in addition to the usual ones asked in the monthly survey on employment and unemployment conducted nationwide by the bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor.

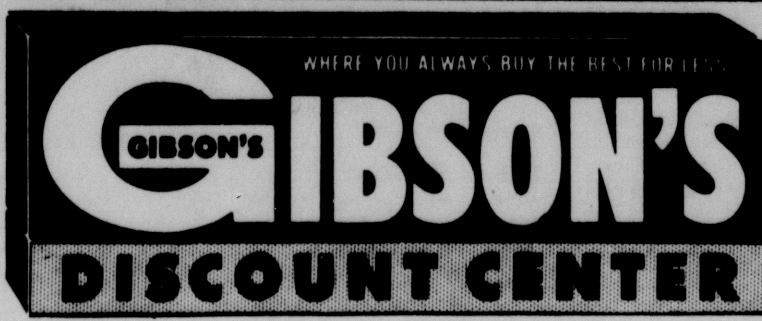

Results of the monthly employment survey provide data on conditions in the labor force, prime indicators of the economic health of the country. For example, the Nation's unemployment rate was 8.4 percent in July, down from the second quarter level of 8.9 percent but still higher than a year earlier. Total employment was 85.1 million in July.

Information supplied by individuals participating in the survey is held confidential by law and is used only to compile statistical totals.
